

Providing Furniture to Fire Stations and EMS Facilities for Over 20 Years.

Butler builds products that can endure continuous, twenty-four-hour-a-day use and hold up in challenging environments. We have various furniture options for fire stations and EMS facilities, including bedding, lounge, tables, and seating areas. Our experienced team of skilled craftsmen, knowledgeable local sales representatives, and professional installers will work with you to help meet your furniture needs.

Designed specifically for fire stations, Butler's Fiero Bed is built with a solid wood structure for durability and a long life. It features three locking cabinets and is available in 7 finishes.

See Finish Selection Guide for wood options. For a complete listing of our available fabrics, please visit our website.
